Sunday 27 August 4:30pm - CoCA Theatre
Dir. Pablo Larrain - Chile (MA) 108 mins
Spanish - English subtitles

Nominated for a Golden Globe award and Chile's entry into the Best Foreign Language film at the Academy awards, Neruda is a glorious mix of history and imagination - an enthralling new film from multi-award winning director Pablo Larrain (No, Jackie).

It is 1948 and the Cold War has reached Chile. Following the President's outlawing of communism, Neruda and his artist wife, Delia, are forced into hiding. Beloved by the populace, they slip underground and are pursued by incompetent, vainglorious inspector Oscar Peluchonneau hoping to make a name for himself by capturing the country's most infamous fugitive.

"smart, whimsical, extremely quirky and devilishly entertaining portrait of the poet" - DAVID STRATTON

Friday 8 September 7:30pm - CoCA Theatre
Dir. James Bogle - Australia (M) 116 mins
In English

WHITELEY is a visual journey into the private life and creative legacy of Australia's most iconic artist, Brett Whiteley, told "in his own words" using personal letters, notebooks and photographs, interwoven with reconstructions, animations, archival interviews and rare footage.

There's a lot of ground to cover here, starting with young Brett's astonishing technical facility as a teenager in Sydney. Then there's the scholarship to study in Italy... acclaim in swinging Sixties London.... the time in New York at the Chelsea Hotel... the bust in Fiji... return to Australia, and the mansion in Lavender Bay... He died much too young, at 53, but he left behind a magnificent body of work. Whiteley is an absorbing tribute to that legacy.

***** A truly insightful, brilliantly made portrait of this extraordinary talent. Margaret Pomeranz - Stage & Screen

Sunday 10 September 4:30pm - CoCA Theatre
Dir. Terence Davies - UK (M) 125 mins
In English

"An absolute drop-dead masterwork. One of the rare movies about a writer that conveys the sense that the character, as depicted, is capable of artistic creation at a world-historical height of achievement. No filmmaker can create a convincing portrait of an artist without being an artist of comparable imagination.

Davies has been, for thirty years, among the world's best filmmakers, certainly not concealed or as unheralded in his time as Dickinson was in hers, but not nearly receiving the acclaim or support that he has deserved.

"A Quiet Passion" will take its place as one of his finest creations, as one of the great movies of its time."

Richard Brody - The New Yorker.
